

Queer/LGBT Activism in the 2000s: Race and Sexuality in the Marriage Equality & Immigration Reform Movements

Presented by: José M. Aguilar-Hernández

José M. Aguilar - Hernández is an Assistant Professor of Ethnic and Women's Studies in the College of Education and Integrative Studies at Cal Poly Pomona. Aguilar-Hernández is the proud son of immigrant farmworkers from Zacatecas, México. He grew up in the Ventura County and transferred from Moorpark Community College to UCLA where he earned a B.A. in Chicana/o Studies and History. Aguilar-Hernández earned a M.A. in Latin American Studies and a Ph.D. in Education from UCLA. His research publications and teaching interests include social movements, educational history, pedagogy, critical race theory, historical methods, and gender and sexuality.

22

April
Wednesday
12pm-1:30pm

Celebrating LGBTQ+ Pride Month
East Los Angeles College

F5 201